PITTSBURG DEFEATS PENN STATE ELEVEN

Scores 20 Points and Goal Line Is in Danger Only Once During Game.

HASTINGS IS THE STAR

Pittsburg, Pa., Nov. 25.—The University of Pittsburgh demonstrated its superiority over Penn State on Forbes field today by winning the annual football game by a score of 20 to 0.

The home team scored 10 points in the first period, after averting a score by Penn State by splendid defense on the seven yard line. On the kick off Meadows of Pittsburg got the ball and made a bad pass to Williamson, the latter fumbling, McDowell of Penn State forced the good pass, shortly after the kick off Williamson gained ten yards around right end, and McLaren plunged through center time after time until the second touchdown, the ball was in the end zone. He kicked goal and the first period ended with the score 10 to 0.

In the second period State resorted to forward passing, but was unable to make any gains, and as Pitt played entirely on the defensive the period ended without further scoring. The third period saw the two teams evenly matched, and the ball passed from one to the other several times on downs, but just before the whistle blew the second touchdown, the whole State line and ran over the line for the second touchdown. He also kicked goal.

In the last period Warner rushed many of his subs into the fray. Dehart, Fry and Gough getting chances and Gough, the latter imitating Hastings with a goal from placement on the thirteen yard line. The lineup:

STUDENTS MIX ON FIELD

De Witt Clinton High School won the scholastic football championship of Manhattan and The Bronx yesterday in defeating the High School of Commerce before 15,000 spectators at the Polo Grounds. The score was 7 to 0.

It was the first victory for the Red and Black players since 1911 and the third since the annual meeting of these two schools was started twelve years ago. Although defeated it must be said that the Commerce eleven offered more stubborn resistance than was expected. For three quarters the Commerce lads held the Clinton team from scoring. Then early in the closing period Rittner, the fullback, shot a forward pass to Polisky. It was a direct catch to make a play, but the latter snugged the ball in the pit of his stomach and jumped over the line from the 1 yard mark. Rittner then punted, and after the punted ball heeled added the additional point by neatly placing the ball between the uprights.

Clinton began entering the Commerce territory toward the close of the third quarter. The start of the final period found the ball in Clinton's possession on the Commerce 40 yard line. On the first play, a wide running play, fifteen yards. Eisenberg then tried a fake run, but failed to gain. He then massed his backs on the right side of the line and called for a forward pass. Polisky ran far out and while traveling as fast as possible caught the ball over his shoulders and dived across the line just as Burns went to tackle him.

Clinton had just as good or even better chances to score earlier in the game. In the third period they got the ball as far as the 8 yard line. A forward pass was broken up and then they were penalized fifteen yards for holding. From the 23 yard line Rittner tried a drop kick. It was rather a weak attempt. The ball went wide and low. The second quarter again offered the Clinton players a chance to score. Burns fumbled on his own 25 yard line and a Clintonian recovered. The ball was then on the Commerce 10 yard line. Clinton quickly got it out of the danger zone.

The ball for the greater part of the time was on the Commerce side of the line. This resulted in Frank Collins' toe being called into use often. He did not disappoint. He placed the ball wisely several times, thus saving many yards because of the inability of the Clintonians to run the ball back. Still gains were made by bucking the line.

The stars of the game were Rittner, Having and Brown for Clinton and Rittner, Having and Brown for Commerce. The usual Clinton-Commerce spirit was shown after the game, when the students of both schools clashed on the gridiron. All the loss and each other up in general. The lineup:
